Supplementary Information

Applicants seeking to be an EXCO member within the Singapore Psychological Society Youth Wing are invited to submit a personal statement of no more than 300 words. You may also provide your CV and character references separately to boost your application.

Your personal statement may include information about:

Leadership Experience

Leadership experience and achievements in past/current CCAs and societies are relevant. Prior involvement in SPS is also ideal. Provide relevant information which highlight your potential to undertake and fulfil responsibilities well on behalf of the SPS Youth Wing.

Motivation and Interest to Serve

Why do you want to serve in the Youth Wing? Provide insight into your motivation and interest in stepping up to serve.

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (Additional sheets may be used if necessary)

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the applicant to write their personal statement. The box is currently blank.

Note: Completed personal statement should be signed and dated by applicant and emailed to secretariat@singaporepsychologicalsociety.org along with the completed nomination form. Upon receipt, it will be assumed the applicant has declared his or her intention to be candidates in the forthcoming election (if any), and that this information is not confidential, and may be disclosed to any member on request or published.
